Dear Mr. Stapleton:

I am enclosing two copies of the Special Undertaking by Purchasers of Polychlorinated Biphenyls which have been executed for Aerovox Corporation by its Vice President, Manufacturing, and for Aerovox Canada Limited, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Aerovox Corporation, by its Vice President. I have modified the agreement by adding on page 1 the language to which you and I agreed regarding the specifications of the products.

In addition, I enclose a copy of a letter of Fairfield & Ellis, Inc. Insurance, the Company's insurance broker of record, evidencing the amount of the Company's general liability insurance. The company's Vice President, Finance, Mr. James F. Pablo, has discussed this matter with Mr. Robert Chapman of your office. As they discussed, the insurance described in the letter includes blanket contractual and provides coverage not only for Aerovox Corporation, but also its subsidiaries.

I also enclose the 1970 Annual Report of Aerovox Corporation.

As I understand it, these documents meet Monsanto's requirements and assure a continuing supply of Aroclor to
